Selling unwanted toys provides schooling for Somalian children. That is what young people near Chicago are discovering through their Neighbourhood Grage Sales.

Young people are donating and selling their toys, games, books and cuddly toys and giving the proceeds to Bright Hope International. As a result, 12 Somalian refugee children were enabled to go to school last year.

Bright Hope International works with local churches throughout Africa to provide spiritual, practical and educational support. For more information, see their website www.brighthope.org
